

Eye Use and Abuse.

Those tired eyes of yours will stand lots of abuse, yet there is a limit to their patience and their power. You may worry along for quite a while, but there will come a time when you will regret your present indifference. Here are a few hints:—Headache, Dizziness—Aversion to Bright Light—Sleepy Feeling while Reading—Blurring of Objects either at close range or at distance—Frowning or Squinting—Smarting or Burning Sensation in or around the eyes—Fatigue or requiring stronger light when reading—Dark Spots floating or Bright Lights flashing before the eyes. These are but a few of the many symptoms.

Just think it over. I fit glasses for defective visions and eye strain—that's all, but a little piece of glass will work wonders. I charge nothing for consultation. If glasses are not needed, I will tell you; if they are I will furnish them at a reasonable price. A trial is all I ask. Neither can you relieve the strain by "hoping your eyes will become stronger." Weak eyes, like in need of glasses, always go from bad to worse.

BUSINESS CHANGE.

Messrs. W. H. Bell and C. M. Bell Have Purchased Grocery Business of E. J. Fountain.

A business deal of more than ordinary importance has just been closed by the terms of which Messrs. W. H. and C. M. Bell become the purchasers of the grocery business of E. J. Fountain. The trade becomes effective at once and the store will be closed tomorrow on account of taking stock. The new firm of Bell Bros. will open for business Friday morning Oct. 1.

Mr. W. H. Bell, who has managed the front or selling end of the business for several years for Mr. Fountain, will still have charge of this department which is a guarantee of perfect service in every respect.

Mr. C. M. Bell, who has been with Wilson & Derden since the organization of that firm, will come into the business on Oct. 4th and will have charge of the office work and business end.

Col. Abercrombie who has so efficiently kept the books of Mr. Fountain, will continue with the new firm for the present at least and it may be permanently.

The store of E. J. Fountain has been one of the leading retail grocery establishments in Bryan from the day he first went into business, and the new firm will see to it that the business does not suffer by the change. They will exert every effort possible and save no expense to keep the business right at the front. A full stock will be kept on hand at all times including every delicacy and fancy article, as well as a complete line of staples.

Courteous salesmen will attend to every want of the patrons, and the entire service, including the delivery of goods, will be prompt and respectful.

Both members of the new firm are well known and popular with the people of this section and will no doubt meet with much success in their new business for which they have the very best wishes of the Eagle.

MILLINERY OPENING.

Ladies Delighted With Magnificent Display Made by Wilson & Derden.

Wilson & Derden announced through The Eagle, that on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock would occur the annual Fall and Winter Millinery Opening at their popular dry goods house.

This announcement was sufficient; the store was ready, and the crowd of eager purchasers was ready at the appointed hour. The bright sunshine and the crisp cool air made the weather ideal, and gave an impetus to trade and also made the feminine longing for new clothes all absorbing which longings found satisfaction in the elegant display of millinery, etc., which these enterprising merchants had prepared for the occasion.

The courteous managers and salesmen on the first floor were busily engaged during the entire day, in showing the complete line of dry goods and trimmings, which this season has declared "the best." Rich silks and velvets in all the new shades, with elegant lace bands and yoking in the same tints, made a tempting feast for the admiring eyes of the ladies.

The ready-to-wear department was also an interesting place. The suits shown are splendid in cut and finish, and every conceivable style was there in a variety of colors and prices. But while all the new and pretty goods were attractive nothing could divert the crowd of admiring ladies from the center of attraction—the millinery parlors, Miss Parker, the efficient trimmer who raised this department to such a high standard last season is again in charge, and received a cordial welcome. Her work shows for itself in the elegant array of up-to-date hats, which fill the cases and stands and tables with a rich, elegant beauty. There is a close rivalry this autumn, between the small hats which show such marked individuality of style, and the very large hats, which are more beautiful than ever. Everything is done on a lavish scale it seems, the larger hats are larger, the small hats smaller, the draped velvet crowns are of massive dimensions, and the plumes longer and more elaborate than ever before. Chantilly laces play an important part in millinery now, the Swede skins are a noteworthy mark of the season. Rich shaggy beavers in black, white and colors are much worn, and the finishing touches are given by the beautifully tinted veils which come in the exact color of the hat. A peep into Wilson & Derden's millinery parlors will reveal all this beauty and more that we cannot describe.

Miss Parker's assistants for this season are, Misses Lena Wetter, Minnie Brantz, Lottie Goodwin and Miss Johnson.

TRIBUTE TO R. W. CARR.

The sympathy of her friends throughout the state goes out to Mrs. T. C. Westbrook of Harne, who is mourning the loss of her brother Captain R. W. Carr of Bryan, who recently passed away after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Westbrook and Captain Carr were the last of a large family, and now she is alone; but glory keeps watch with grief, for her brother's name will ever be held in sacred remembrance. He was a loyal Confederate. Although living in California at the outbreak of the war between the states, he left all and, after dangers and vicissitudes, he reached Texas and raised a company for service. He was in the last battle of the war on the Rio Grande.

Mrs. Westbrook devotes time and labor and substance to the memorial work of the cause she loves and her brother honored. Even now in her hour of distress, she is adding the monument under way to Hood's brigade at Austin; to the troops of the field of Shiloh at Corinth, Miss.; to the Confederates at Arlington, the ancestral home of Gen. Robert E. Lee, and to Terry's Texas Rangers at Houston. —Houston Chronicle.

AT THE TENT THEATER.

The presentation of "Auld Lang Syne" by the Harrison Company last night was superb. It was one of the finest plays ever seen in Bryan—Pure, clean, pointing a beautiful lesson and the pathos was so tender as to bring tears to many eyes.

Tonight is Laughing Night at the Tent Theater on this occasion they will present a Farce Comedy, entitled The Doctor's Prescription, the name alone tells it is good for everyone, only in this case 3 doses is a sure cure for the blues and business worryment, so come out tonight, you will laugh, roar and scream. Master Leon Taylor and Mr. McDonald will sing between the acts.

Tomorrow night is the feature play of the week on this occasion they present a play "Without a Name." It is a romantic comedy in 4 acts, a beautiful story, well told, and everyone will enjoy it. As Mr. Harrison writes all the plays he gives the audience an opportunity in naming his productions. To the party who suggests the most appropriate name the committee selects will receive a reward of 10. Come take a chance.

CATARRH MICROBES.

A Dead Microbe is the Best Microbe

—Hymel Kills Them All.

Hymel (pronounced Higl-o-mel) is a killer of catarrh germs, because when you breathe it in, its antiseptic and germicide properties reach every nook and crevice of the mucous membrane, from the mouth and nose deep into the lungs.

Hymel brings the Australian forest of pine and eucalyptus to your home. It is made of the active principles extracted from these trees.

No one who lives in or near these forests suffers from catarrh. No one who breathes in Hymel, the real forest air of Australia, will have catarrh for long after the treatment starts. If you want to cure catarrh, croup, bronchitis, coughs, colds, asthma, hay fever, or relieve consumption, try Hymel, the common-sense cure, the cure that reaches the spot.

A complete Hymel outfit, including a hard rubber inhaler, costs only $1, and extra bottles of Hymel, if afterwards needed, costs but 50 cents. Guaranteed to cure or money back. Sold by leading druggists everywhere. Sold and guaranteed in Bryan by E. J. Jenkins.

Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a supply at Emmet & Maloney's drug store and began their use. Since then I have improved rapidly and have no doubt but what a cure will soon result. Doan's Kidney Pills are worthy of praise and should be given a trial by every sufferer of kidney trouble."
